BOB BURGER is a singer/songwriter of hundreds of hook-laden songs. A veteran performer for three decades, BURGER has written songs for recording artists Styx, Donnie Iris, Glen Burtnik, Bobby Bandiera and Joe Vadala. In 1989 he wrote and performed "All Of Us" for the HBO film "Story of 15 Boys."

Growing up in Erie, Pennsylvania, BURGER quickly rose to the top of the local scene, enjoying local success with his original song "You Want To Know Why," a top ten hit on local radio performed by his band THE PULSE. After moving to the New York/New Jersey area, BURGER formed a new band with brother Jeff called BLONDE OBSESSION becoming regulars at renowned New York clubs The Bitter End, CBGB's, and The Cat Club. Later, BURGER began co-writing songs on Glen Burtnik's A&M Records solo projects including the feature cut "Spinning My Wheels." After Burtnik joined Styx, BURGER continued his collaborative work on Styx's "Edge Of The Century" album earning the RIAA's Gold Record award.

A valued performer, BURGER has joined Bobby Bandiera at the Jersey Shore's most celebrated venues, including Count Basie Theatre, Asbury Park's Stone Pony and The Columns in Avon-by-the-Sea. As a member of the Bobby Bandiera Band, BURGER has played several major fund-raising events alongside megastars Bruce Springsteen, Jon Bon Jovi and Southside Johnny.

In late 2003 BURGER released his debut solo album CYMBALS AT DAWN. Quickly he received many local accolades including Album Of The Year (Kweevak.com) and Artist Of The Year (Upstage Magazine) awards. In Fall 2004 BURGER received his first Asbury Music Award nominations for Top Solo Artist and Top Local Release. Currently BURGER is touring in support of CYMBALS AT DAWN and plans to begin work on his next solo album. The as-yet-untitled project is scheduled for a Fall 2005 release.
